As well as Vicars (Abbots Road) played they were playing catch up for most of the match with Park and Ride (Knighton Park) receiving starts in all but one of the two-game sets.

Oscar White won the first against Vishal Parmar but let the second slip after being 20-15 ahead Dan Pearson has been playing very well in this competition and his set against Bhulesh Rathod was the only one that Park and Ride did not begin ahead, with Dan coming through fairly comfortably.

Patrick Cox then beat Chetan Tailor 2-0 to make it 5-1 before Vishal showed his best form in defeating Dan 2-0 to give his team a bit of hope.

Park and Ride took the doubles 3-1 and gave very little away in making sure with Oscar fully in charge against Chetan before a shared set between Patrick and Vishal finished proceedings.

Eric Jackson organised the competition.
