

Another full set of fixtures played!

The semi-finalists are now confirmed from Group A as the two KP teams.

Aerial Abbots look like the favourites to top Group B; it is wide open for second place.

The latest tables are attached.

RESULTS

In Group A the battle of the top two went the way of Knighton the Town as they rallied from 8-6 down to beat The 3 Musketeers 11-9.

For the winners: Amardeep Gudela 3/6, Chris Parmar-Saville 3/6, Jack Mooney 3/4; 2/4 doubles.

For the 'away' team: Dean Jordan 2/6, Andy Searle 2/6, George McClurkin 3/4; 2/4 doubles.

In the other match Goons notched up their first win with a 13-7 success against Fleckney 1.

For the winners: Allan Crowson 5/6, Pete Mason 4/6, Kevin Edwards 2/4; 2/4 doubles.

For the visitors: Dillon Kearney 3/6, Mike Wilson 2/6, Jan Green 0/4; 2/4 doubles.

In Group B Aerial Abbots soared to the top of the table with an 18-2 win at Fleckney 2.

For the winners: Geoff Hancock 6/6, Bhulesh Rathod 5/6, Kishen Mistry 3/4; 4/4 doubles.

For the home side: Drew Harbidge 1/6, Andy Haddon 1/6, Callum Harbidge 0/4; 0/4 doubles.

Fleckney 2 finished strongly, winning 2 of the last 3; unfortunately for them they were 17-0 down at the time.

In the KP derby KPT beat Summer Knights 13-7.

For the winners: Paul Ducksbury 4/6, Steve Bessant 2/6, Elly Bajarias 4/4; 3/4 doubles.

For the 'away' side: Tony Scarborough 1/6, Mike Smith 2/6, Penny Eames 3/4; 1/4 doubles.

Wilson's Third Law has been invoked: this states that no previous winner can win POTW in the group stages (bad luck Geoff!).

Honourable mentions for Allan Crowson and Bhulesh Rathod (both 5/6 and 2/2 doubles); also Kishen Mistry (3/4 and 4/4 doubles).

But this week's winner is Elly Bajarias with 4/4 singles and 3/4 doubles.
