

We are (nearly all) off and running.
Five out of the six scheduled matches were played.

Just before the results, a couple of additional registrations (the latter before this week's match) to note:

-A: Andy Wright (Dynamic Desford) 150/40
-C: Zeljko Koncarevic (Leics Tennis & Squash) 118/46

The tables are attached with the results detailed below.

Group A

The match between Summer Knights and Fleckney 1 was postponed (and has indeed been rescheduled).

Shirley and the Boys had an emphatic 20-0 win over (less than) Dynamic Desford.
S&B: Hamza Caratela 6/6, Anshh Dhagia 6/6, Jack Bitenieks 4/4; 4/4 doubles
DD: Gordon Bacon 0/6, Luke Blair 0/6, Lee Berrill 0/4; 0/4 doubles

Group B

The 3 Musketeers kicked off their campaign with an 18-2 win over Fleckney 2.
T3M: Andy Searle 5/6, John Underwood 5/6, George McClurkin 4/4; 4/4 doubles
F2: Jan Green 0/6, Jan Nix 0/6, James Robertson 2/4; 0/4 doubles

Abbots All Stars also got off to a winning start with a 15-5 win away at the Chromans.
AAS: Gitesh Parbhoo 6/6, Geoff Hancock 4/6, Bhulesh Rathod 3/4; 2/4 doubles
TC: Dillon Kearney 1/6, Elly Bajarias 1/6, Ayhan Celik 1/4; 2/4 doubles

Group C

Knighton the Town opened up with a 15-5 win over Wizards.
KtT: James Lancaster 4/6, Chris Parmar-Saville 5/6, Simon Aldis 3/4; doubles 3/4
W: Martin Pember 3/6, Himansu Mishra 0/6, Mick Box 1/4; doubles 1/4

Leics Tennis & Squash made their ET debut with a 13-7 win at Goons.
LT&S: Zeljko Koncarevic 4/6, Faizali Dharamshi 3/6, Dave Fowler 3/4; doubles 3/4
G: John Winsper 1/6, Allan Crowson 4/6, Barry Robinson 1/4; doubles 1/4

And finally...

An unusually high number of contenders for Player of the Week!
There were perfect returns (singles and doubles) from no fewer than five players.
George McClurkin and Gitesh Parbhoo from Group B plus Shirley's boys in Group A (Hamza Caratela, Anshh Dhagia and Jack Bitenieks).
I won't try to separate/rank them so joint winners!
