

ELBOW TANKARD REPORT – WEEK TWO

We got up to 3 out of the 4 scheduled matches played this week- a steady improvement! Again, the postponed fixture was notified to me (thanks) and has been re-scheduled. Slightly unusually there were three away wins; all the matches looked pretty close, two of them especially so.

Wilson's Second Law of Table Tennis held up in two of the three matches: the side that doesn't lose the doubles in the ET wins the match.

In the Group A fixture The 3 Musketeers won 11-9 at Goons.

For the winners: George McClurkin 5/6, Andy Searle 4/6, Dean Jordan 1/4; 1/4 doubles.

For the home side: Kevin Edwards 2/6, Steve Harrison 3/6, Barry Robinson 1/4; 3/4 doubles.

Andy beat Steve 24-22 in the final game of the night to secure the win.

In Group B Summer Knights beat Fleckney 2 by 13-7.

For the winners: Aboo Dossani 4/6, Robert Geary 5/6, Tony Scarborough 1/4; 3/4 doubles.

For the home side: Andy Haddon 3/6, Lee Towers 3/6, Callum Harbidge 0/4; 1/4 doubles.

Also in Group B, Aerial Abbots beat KPT 11-9.

For the winners: Geoff Hancock 3/6, Gitesh Parbhoo 3/6, Bhulesh Rathod 1/4; 4/4 doubles.

For the home side: Paul Ducksbury 3/6, Abraham Lam 5/6, Ian Prentice 1/4; 0/4 doubles.

Gitesh's win over Abe in game #19 (Abe's only singles defeat) took the away team over the winning line.

So to the keenly contested 'player of the week' award.

Three KP players won 5/6 singles but two of them (Abraham Lam and George McClurkin) lost both their doubles.

And so this week's winner is Robert Geary (who also won 1/2 in his doubles).

The tables are attached (provided I remember to attach them).
