Subject: Elbow Tankard- week 8 report (29/8)

The eighth week of the Elbow Tankard, the second of the two extension weeks, saw the remaining postponed match played.

We have also clarified the score/details from last week's Group B match.

The final tables (and individual averages for all players) are included in the attachments.

Group B

Knighton the Town (Knighton Park) in fact had a 14-6 win over Sparky Wizards (Winstanley Wizards) last week.

SW: Steve White 3/6, Raju Rahul 1/6, Mohamed Mahmud 1/4; 1/4 doubles

KtT: Dave Mountain 3/6, Chris Hatton 4/6, Martin Pember 4/4; 3/4 doubles

Knighton the Town finished off the group matches with another win, extending their 100% record, 12-8 over Slice Slice Baby (Leics Tennis & Squash).

KtT: Chris Parmar-Saville 6/6, Dave Mountain 5/6, Martin Pember 0/4; 1/4 doubles

SSB: Anand Gupta 3/6, Zeljko Koncarevic 2/6, Faizali Dharamshi 0/4; 3/4 doubles

Any Other Business

The updated tables are attached.

I have included the number of doubles games won by each team as well as average points per match.

The second attachment shows individual averages for all teams.

Thanks to all who have participated in this year's competition.

Eight of the teams have finished, leaving just four...

The semi-finals are as follows:

-The 3 Musketeers vs. Wizards 1 (arranged for Tuesday 1 September)

-Knighton the Town vs. Summer Spinners (arranged for Thursday 3 September)

(the final will be played by Friday 11 September)

Player of the fortnight:

This covers all four of the postponed matches; both players come from Knighton the Town (Knighton Park).

An honourable mention for Chris Parmar-Saville: he won 6/6 in this week's fixture (plus 0/2 doubles).

But the winner is Martin Pember: he won 4/4 in the previous week's match (plus 3/4 doubles).
